Introduction

Hi there! I'm Shifaa. I am a 9 year old girl. I am a story writer.

Today, I wrote a story that is called: "Why I Love Winter". In this story, I will tell you why I love winter.

I love winter because: We wrap up warm, we go skating, I can see my breath outside, we play in the snow and because we have lots of fun.

I also love winter because I wear my snowshoes, I can build a snowman, I can go for tobogganing, I drink hot chocolate to stay cozy and I love winter especially when it is snow day. I love winter because I Love Winter :) !
